

Grand Valley Trails Association

Revision to Map 11

Section that has changed:

Black Walnut Section reroute at km 50.9

Effective Nov. 2015

The Grand Valley Trail was rerouted starting at km 50.9 as shown on the map. The trail, indicated as the solid red line, at km 50.9, now turns right (north) and proceeds to Snyder's Flats Road. At the road, opposite the Bloomingdale Mennonite Church, the trail turns right (east) following Snyder's Flats Road to Sawmill Road at the Bloomingdale Park and Community Centre, at km 51.9 (formerly km 56.8). This reroute removes about 5 km of the main Grand Valley Trail.

SPECIAL NOTE: The Grand River Conservation Authority still provides trails on its Snyder's Flats property. They may be accessed using Snyder's Flats Road. The Grand Valley Trail no longer passes through the GRCA land and therefore the trail there is not blazed (marked) or maintained by the Grand Valley Trails Association.
